

SES group

Aerostar SES

Environmental
Resource Solutions
A Division of SES Energy Services LLC

SES group of companies

Capabilities

December 8, 2021

Companies

8(a) Certified Companies

Overview

- 14 Alaska Native-Owned Companies, Subsidiaries of Bristol Bay Native Corporation (BBNC)
- Over 530 personnel
- Personnel have Provided 25+ Years of Management and Technical Expertise to Commercial and Government Clients Nationwide and Internationally
- Bonding—Up to $100M Single and Up to $500M Aggregate

Service Lines

- Environmental
 - Investigation, remediation, restoration, compliance, pollution prevention, and a full range of NEPA and Natural Resource/Ecological services
- Construction
 - Construction management, design-build, and Sustainment, Restoration and Modernization (SRM)
- Civil Construction
 - Support of DoD civil work infrastructure construction efforts including those in support of flood risk management and risk reduction measures, utilities, and new construction or upgrades
- Fuel Systems
 - Fuel System Construction, Repairs and Maintenance
- Energy Services
 - Turnkey design-build electrical services within the renewable, industrial, and commercial markets

Grading and Drainage, Bird Air Strike Hazard (BASH) Program – Maxwell AFB, AL

- SCE completed grading to rectify drainage issues in multiple areas as part of a requirement under the BASH Program at Maxwell AFB
 - Grading and drainage repairs
 - Wetland and stream mitigation
 - Culvert repairs underneath road
- ERS and ASL were part of the team

ICRMP and INRMP – Fort Buchanan, PR

- ASL and ERS assisted Fort Buchanan in sustaining its military mission, satisfying NEPA, and maintaining natural and cultural resources
 - Reviewed, added NEPA requirements, and updated the Fort Buchanan Integrated Natural Resources Management Plan (INRMP)
 - Reviewed and updated the Fort Buchanan Integrated Cultural Resources Management Plan (ICRMP)
- ASL and ERS ensured that natural and cultural resources conservation measures and Army activities within Fort Buchanan and USARCs were integrated and are consistent with the federal stewardship requirements

Benefits of Teaming

- Helps businesses gain past performance for bidding on future opportunities
- Provides best-value for the government
 - Utilizes most highly-qualified companies
 - Supports the use of the local contractor

Questions?

