

G.M. HILL Engineering, Inc. 2025 8(a) Graduate of Year by the US Small Business Administration

A Jacksonville business owner is getting national attention after setting her sights on achieving the American Dream.

Gina Hill, Owner and President of G.M. Hill Engineering, Inc. has been recognized by the US Small Business Administration as the National 2025 8(a) Graduate of the Year.

"This recognition is a testament to the hard work, perseverance, and innovation of our team at G.M. Hill Engineering, Inc.," said Hill.

Hill will represent small businesses around the country in Washington, DC, for the National Small Business week next month. It is an opportunity to single out one extraordinary individual from each state across the country.

Gina Hill started GM Hill Engineering Inc in 2004. In just more than 20 years, she built the business into a leading integrated design and construction firm serving both the public and private sectors as well as the federal government. Her company's completed projects include:

- Renovation and new builds on major universities and schools (University of Florida, University of North Florida etc.)
- Hurricane & Shoreline restoration

- Contracts with the U.S. Air Force, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, NAVFAC, U.S. Coast Guard, Transportation Security Administration, and many more.

While Hill is being recognized as the leading Florida entrepreneur, she has grown her company into a multi-state force, with offices in Virginia and Texas, Georgia, South Carolina as well as three offices around the state of Florida.

Hill demonstrates daily she not only has the vibrancy and vision to stand out in a competitive field, but she also has the true grit of a woman who is determined to build and navigate a successful business.

"We are honored to be recognized by the SBA and remain committed to delivering high-quality design, engineering and construction solutions while driving economic growth in our staff, partner firms, community and beyond."

Gina Hill will be recognized in Washington D.C. May 4-10 for the 2025 National Small Business Week
